

Kindergarten School House in San Juan Hunamana, Peru

The children in the community of San Juan Hunamana have a new school to return to once summer break is over. The old building received a new roof, updated walls, a latrine, chairs, tables, books and other learning materials. This school serves children up to 5 years old. The schoolhouse renovation and upgrade project will provide the young children of San Juan Hunamana a good start on their road to educational success.

Materials for the school being delivered to the community.

Educational materials for the children.

The children who will be benefitting from the early education.